

Privacy

When you launch a jamcode LLC application or register with us, you provide us with up to four types of information:

- your username
- email contact (you knowingly choose to disclose that is collected by us)
- locational use information (collected by us as you interact with our services)
- usage information (that is collected by our servers as you use our applications)

When you launch or interact with a jamcode LLC application, we collect your device type and IP address. This information is gathered for all users. In addition, we use the unique Device ID (“UUID”) that Apple makes available for each iPhone/iPod touch device in order to authenticate the user session. This UUID functions similarly to a persistent cookie to make it possible to authenticate the user without the need for a password. You can disassociate a UUID from a user account at any time by emailing us at privacy@jam-code.com.

You can post user content through and information through jamcode LLC applications or our website at your own risk. Although we allow you to set privacy options that limit access to your content and associated meta-data such as location information, please be aware that no security measures are perfect or impenetrable. We cannot control the actions of other Users with whom you may choose to share your pages and information. Therefore, we cannot and do not guarantee that User Content you post with jamcode LLC will not be viewed by unauthorized persons. We are not responsible for circumvention of any privacy settings or security measures contained in jamcode LLC applications. You understand and acknowledge that, even after removal, copies of User Content may remain viewable in cached and archived form or if other Users have copied or stored your User Content.

Any improper collection or misuse of information provided on jamcode LLC applications is a violation of the jamcode LLC Terms of Service and should be reported to privacy@jam-code.com.

By using jamcode LLC, you are consenting to have your personal data transferred to and processed in the United States.

Sharing Your Information with Third Parties

jamcode LLC is about users sharing information with others. For example, with our GasBag application, one of our services is to allow users to submit gas price data, they have collected, back to us. Third Party Advertising Advertisements may appear on jamcode LLC in the future and may be delivered (or “served”) directly to users by third party advertisers. They automatically receive your IP address when this happens. In this way, they may compile information about where individuals using your computer or browser saw their advertisements and determine which advertisements are clicked. Third party advertisers have no access to your contact information.
